Wayne County Clerk Announces Significant Court Service Delays

(Wayne County, MI) – In order to effectively manage furlough days in conjunction with budgetary constraint, Wayne County Clerk Cathy M. Garrett announced significant service delays in the Court Services Division. Due to this situation, patrons will experience long lines and a significant delay in court services.

These changes are effective on November 1, 2011, and will continue thereafter indefinitely.

The following services in the Court Services Division will be affected by these constraints:

- Courtroom Proceedings;
- The Filing of Court Documents;
- The Accessibility of Court Records; and
- PPO Filings and Victim Advocacy Services.

The Wayne County Clerk's Office currently provides court services for three areas of the Third Judicial Circuit Court, including civil, criminal, and family (and juvenile) cases.

For further information, please feel free to contact the County Clerk's Office at (313)-224-8287.
